

GAS OPERATIONS

COMPRESSOR OPERATOR "C"

Nature and Scope of the Position:

Performs semi-skilled to skilled work related to the operation and maintenance of compressor stations. Will be given individual assignments or work as part of a crew. Works under the direction of higher classification and/or under the supervision of a supervisor.

Typical Duties:

1. Operates compressor stations, controls pressures, and monitors gas flow.
2. Operates auxiliary equipment under the direction of higher classifications.
3. Learns to and performs survey work such as, leak detection, and is able to operate or assist in operating all equipment associated with these surveys.
4. Operates valves that control the flow of gas.
5. Performs routine compressor maintenance such as draining fluids, checking and adjusting drive belts, and repairing dump valves. Learns to and checks the general condition of engines and compressor valves, maintain air compressors and batteries, change separator filters, make routine repairs, reports unusual noises or operating conditions, etc. Maintains tools and work equipment used in assigned job duties.
6. Operates assigned vehicles, check fluids, safety check prior to driving etc., on such equipment.
7. Learns to perform fitting and maintenance work on metering and regulating equipment, associated lines, and station piping. Learns the techniques of the installation, removal, repair, adjustment, inspection, testing and calibration of gas measuring and regulating equipment. Assist higher classification personnel in the performance of their duties and performs any other duties as assigned within the helper classification.
8. Learns to lubricate, repair, and rebuild valves and valve operators.
9. Prepares and maintains all necessary paperwork and or computer-generated forms in the performance of assigned job duties.
10. Assists higher classification personnel in the performance of their duties, and performs any other duties assigned within the Compressor Operator "C" classification and lower classifications.

Qualifications:

1. Must have demonstrated ability in lower classifications, performed the duties for a minimum of 90 days and have been recommended by local management.
2. Must have demonstrated the ability to use and operate the necessary vehicles, tools and equipment utilized by lower classifications.
3. Must be willing to work shifts and overtime and have a good work and attendance record.
4. Must have a valid vehicle operator's license.
5. Employees may be considered for promotion to the Compressor Operator "B" after they have been in the Compressor Station department for twelve (12) months or sooner if they have demonstrated the ability to perform all the functions of Compressor Operator "C" and be recommended by management.

Revised 8/6/21