

ENGINEERING TECHNICIAN A – INSPECTION

Nature and Scope of Position

Performs duties and is skilled in inspection and related paperwork and other engineering, and record maintenance activities associated with the construction and inspection of Company projects. Will work under the direction of like or higher classifications and/or supervisor but is left to own resourcefulness to accomplish the work. Will lead, direct, and assign the work of like and lower classifications as well as contractors. Follows and directs Dominion Safety procedures and policies as well as all applicable Standard Operating Procedures. Promotes positive working environment.

Typical Duties

- Performs all duties of lower classifications.
- Inspects station projects as assigned.
- Inspects multicrew projects as assigned.
- Inspects complex mainline projects as assigned.

Working Conditions

- Work is primarily performed outside in all types of weather conditions. Some office work is required.

Requirements

- Must pass a qualifying test.
- One of the following is required:
 - a. Completed vocational or technical training in an engineering or related discipline.
 - b. Direct experience or formal training in pipeline construction.

Qualifications

- Basic computer and math skills. Good communication skills (written and verbal).
- Must be willing to work overtime (unplanned Weekday and Saturday) as needed to support the project goals and customer needs and maintain a good work performance record.
- Must have a valid driver's license and may be required to use a personal vehicle for Company business use.
- Experience relating interpersonally with internal and external customers.