

What Will Be Different?

How will I change my contact details?	Once you've retired, you'll only use this website to make changes to your contact details. Before you retire, you'll verify and update your personal information, including email and mailing addresses, as well as your preferred contact method, so you'll be sure to receive: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Confirmations of your benefit choices or decisions• Notifications of information that you need to provide or complete Return to this website whenever your personal contact information changes so you can stay in touch and continue to receive benefit updates. If you plan to live in another location for part of the year, be sure to provide an alternate postal mail address.
Will I continue to get information from my work email address?	No. After your last day of employment, you won't receive information through your work email address.
Will my health insurance be different?	The health insurance benefits you have as an active employee may end when you retire.
Will I pay for my health insurance benefits the same way I do now?	The way you pay for health insurance will probably change. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Medicare—Any premiums will be deducted from your monthly Social Security payment.
What happens to my other insurance?	If you are eligible to enroll in retiree life insurance, your coverage may be adjusted based on your age. All other insurance benefits you may have as an active employee under your employer's group plans may end when you retire.